

Everlasting Bonds

A good friend is someone who sticks with you through thick and thin, a compassionate blanket similar to a four-leaf clover. Nobody is ever better than a friend. A friend is someone who, like a paper airplane rising from the hand, picks you up when you're down.

However, a friend is neither "a thorn in your side" nor a "bad apple that spoils the bunch." However, a friend is someone you will have till the day you die.

The siblings God did not give us are our friends.

Alternatively, he may ban us from having it, but as God is one the be forever free of mistakes, "We need never be hopeless, because we can never be irreparably broken."
