

I don't love her anymore

I thought I needed her

I thought I loved her

But I don't think she's worth it anymore

I wanted to stick with her as long as I could

But I can't anymore

I don't feel anything for her anymore

I keep saying "i will wait for her"

But it's not worth it

I keep saying "I love her"

But that love has weakened

And when she does talk to me again

How can I tell her?

She still loves me

What would she say?

Would she hate me?

I don't know

But all I know is I can't stay living like this forever
