

I bet you Uranoose is going to be so upset when he finds out X is gone. And I bet he's going to be super mad when Jupiter comes back and takes his place. He's also going to be furious about how he can't change his name to Caelus anymore and how he can't take Saturn's orbit and Neptune can't take his. And I bet he's going to think that nobody will talk to him anymore because he was working against the moons
