

It's been a while since the holiday event finished.

It's also been a while since we went back to the basement.

Christmas is over... And I'm tired zzz

Very tired ...

My festive spirit has gone.

At least Rudie's is still there

Even if his seasonal joy is built on his own delusions

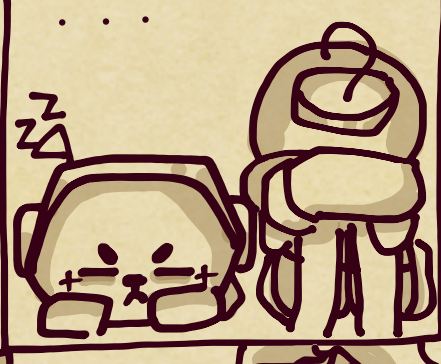

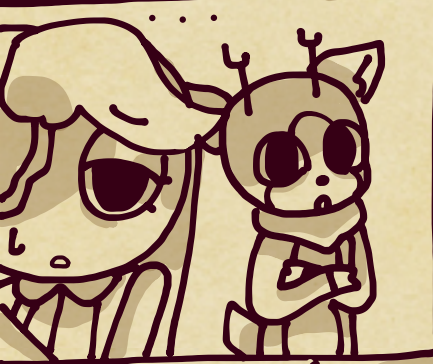

It's sad, but it sounds peaceful

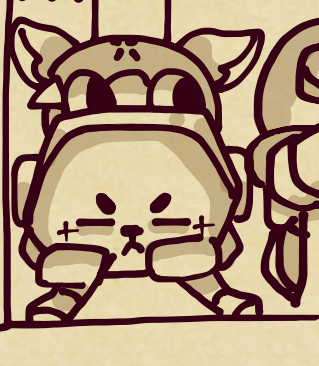

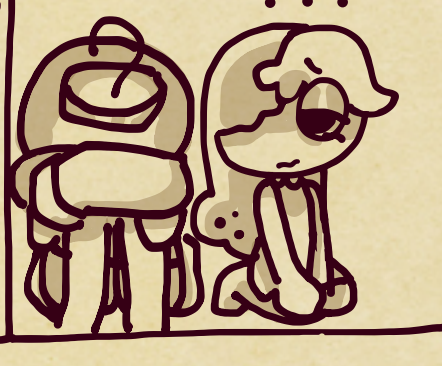

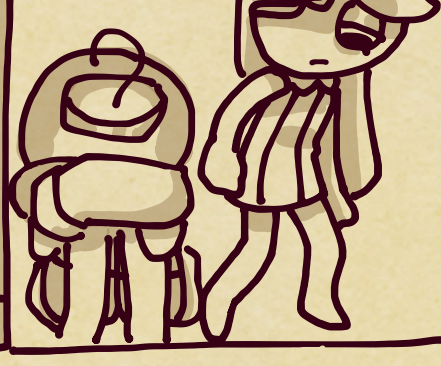

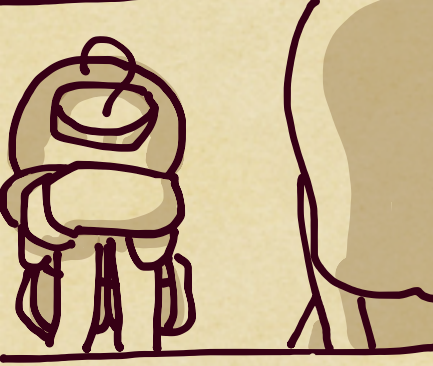

So peaceful.

... God, I wish it was December.

xSigh mm...

10 months until December:
(2 months worth of food)

We can make it work, we always do.

...
we just need a christmas miracle.

...
but it's february...
