

Once there were 5 boys. Their names were Archie, Chase, Jack, Coley, and Ethan. Archie was a fencing addict, Chase was a chef, Jack was a vegetarian, and Coley loved swimming. They all shared a love of fencing, though. One day, Archie invited the boys to his fencing club. They were all having a good time, until Archie suddenly dropped dead while turning on the music. Who killed Archie? Hints: Chase said he was cooking a hamburger. Jack said he was watching Chase to try to get over his vegetarianism. Coley said he was swimming in the pool.
