

Peace means nothing
Peace means nothing here at least
All our happiness is gone
All our freedom is gone
Many good things the gallery had is gone
And the only things that remain is anger, sadness, frustration, and disappointment
From all the drama
People are getting fed up and leaving
I don't blame them
Every amazing artist will be gone just like that Unless you drama causers shape up and realize a few things
I won't be posting for awhile
I'll be back the day my contest ends
Hopefully you'll all figure it out by then.
