

So, I'm pretty sure no one knows this but tomorrow (September 3rd) is my 1st year notability anniversary! So if you will could you guys give me ideas on what I should do for it? Maybe like a reveal or something, hopefully I can do it tomorrow if I get enough comments on this post. I'll also take requests from anyone, people or animals (animals are my specialty, dragons and cats ig) or anything really. Thank you so much to all my followers for supporting me.
