@wednesdayaddamsrules

she was so mean to me. I cannot explain how I feel right now :(((what has this world come to. She told me my drawings all suck. you might think that's not that bad but it wasn't just that. SHE MADE FUN OF MY DEAD DOG! Like who does that. At the end of our conversation she said if I post any more all my drawings she will make fun of my drawings online. If that happens I will leave. Now draw a flower under here to make me happier.
