Additional Information

She is a rival who has a strong crush on senpai. She is a manba gyaru and is friends with the phone addicts. Her mother is a friend of the Ronsaku Loan company, and musume's mother. You may eliminate her, but she is a tough opponent. A named Geiji and Geba, the art and gaming club leaders, have crushes on her. Her weakness is her deathly fear of roaches. She loves the color red. She is a master manipulator.

Xtra info: She appears in week 13, and stays for the rest of the game. There are three ways to get her away from senpai.

Option 1: eliminate her. Any normal way to eliminate her, but she will fight back. If you don't successfully fight back, she'll take a photo of you while you recover and run away, sending the photo to the police.

Option 2: Sabotaging her with senpai. Do like you would with a normal rival, except when senpai rejects her, she will leave for two weeks, returning and rivaling you for senpai's love, as a yandere.

Option 3: matchmaking her with someone else. There's a fifty-fifty chance she will actually match make. If she stops crushing on senpai, she'll go with them. But if you don't, she'll realize how strong her love for senpai is , and will rival, you as a yandere.
