later in 1983, Charlie is taken & killed

1984, or late 83', Charlie is recreated as a robot & sound systems are created late 83' or 84', more killings happen.

Around 83'-84', Henry's family leaves him

83, Michael (Book Michael) is killed

Charlie & her friends are separated around this time

* 84 or 85, Elizabeth is killed

Many versions of Charlie is created

Henry realizes how William used his creations for bad and asks Jen to lock away the creations.

Henry kills himself. ;

1987, bite of 87, in which a malfunctioning toy animatronic destroys someone's brain

1987, or

88, W.A. is Spring locked for the first time & somehow survives.

time skip to 10 years later, entering our main book arc.

I assume W.A. is playing as Dave Miller, and Springtrap might actually come after this book arc. Remember, W.A. reveals he can use Springtrap as a transforming animatronic, which reveals a ton of answers about fnaf 3.

* You may be asking how I know this about Elizabeth. Please know I probably will post more fnaf theories about this in the future, and I will explain the lore more thoroughly.

(I mean that I know the lore behind Elizabeth and around the time she got killed. This is after William discovered the transforming technology that Henry made.)

Understand that fnaf 3 spring trap might not actually be a human in a suit, like we thought. In the 4th book, William reveals that the spring trap who captured Jessica is actually an animatronic. This means that the fnaf 3 spring trap could be an animatronic. After all, they did say animatronic in the tape and not human body. This is something I realized and noticed how many people have missed this simple fact. This would mean fnaf 3 fits in very well with our story and book arc.
