

I'm retaking the pjo godly parent quiz, and by retaking I mean taking 30 or so different quizzes and tallying my results. I did this a few years ago and got Hephaestus but I don't trust how accurate that answer is lmao

Also I've been working on a drawing template thingy but it's taking me so long to even draw on my own 😓 if I don't get it done within the next few weeks just assume I've abandoned it like all my other projects.

Also sorry for being inactive, but y'all know me :)
