

here are some of my biggest fears and why it think there silly 😬

Death: uhh, I mean I have no choice 🦴 that's the terrifying part of it tho-

Bugs: those little critters hate me. They want to kill me, eat me alive 🐛 it's silly because there's bugs everywhere 🦴 and most bugs wont even hurt me that bad, so I have no clue why I'm even scared of em-heights: babes...this one is just...I-I don't even know. I have no words. No comment.

Being old: girl dem wrinkles and gray hair is gonna be there one day 😬 idek why I'm scared of being old, I'm just scared.

Huge things: at one of my friends b-day parties is where this fear started. This HUGEEEEEE statue was there and when I saw it I went "AHHHHHHHH. OH MY GAWD HELPPPPPP" ...it was an escape the room.

Small holes: why I'm scared? No clue. Is it silly? Yes. Why? Why in the Lordy lord are small holes scary? There should be no reason for this whatsoever.

Loud things: your prob like "but your literally surrounded by loudness everyday." True but that loud and the loud im talking about are terrifying. I'm good at hiding most of my phobias and this is one.

But if it gets to loud, peace 🧐✌️

Thts pretty much it, I have other fears but not as big as these 😬 anyway bye! Love you ❤️
