

Ugh I can't believe this.

It's not my freinds it's the stùpid' school policy!

I was in history and we use iPads at my school and stuff, so we were using it to answer some questoins, and well, MY IPAD IS DINGING? Hold up, yeah, it is. And now I remember, BRUHV ME AND MY FREINDS WERE HAVING A ARGUMENT. It was about being more mature and stuff but like they were texting in the group chat and it kept dinging! I got pulled over and got A FRICKEN TECH INFRACTION! Like....WHA.... Why can't I just get a reminder to like put it on do not disturb and go free? A tech infraction? Really.
