

Iv don't it again but I think I passed the line my parents are rly mad at me this time and there punishing me for 7-8 months for talking to a guy online which is my friend iv done this multiple times but my brother snitched me out this time and I did nothing to him... but the whole story is my parents were at a church thing for 2 hours and I decided "oh it's a good idea to talk to my friend" so I do uwu's as a joke Same with moaning my brother heard and he told once they got back from it and they said "oh your a disgrace your disgusting and your dishonest get out of my face I don't want to see you" now that just got deep in my heart it hurts still honestly and I feel so bad I feel like I don't deserve anything anymore I feel like I'm worthless all just bec of this but iv broken there trust again and yet IM PLAYING THE ~~MURKIN~~ VICTIM AGAIN. Maybe my mind does it to feel less guilty I hate it I cried myself to sleep and the worst part is my depression will probably get worse and eventually I will distance myself but I won't I'll probably have to switch schools or something if not I'll probably get slapped like last time why should I care though I used to it by now but i feel like killing by brother not literally though just punching him or something I hate him honestly but I can't hate him I have to forgive him because I'm Christen yep I am and that's hard now I go on a 5 day break from school and I hate it because there's probably going to be more drama than ever I think I won't talk to him and just sleep if I have to idk but I hate this situation but than again it is my fault and I playing the victim again I just need advice if u made it this far plz help me somehow :(
