

Hi guys! What is your favorite tv show? I tell a lot of people that mine is The Summer I Turned Pretty or Outer Banks, but I think my favorite has to be Manifest. I just had it's final season come out and it was soooo good. It's about 191 people who boarded a plane and when they got off it was 5 years later, but they hadn't aged a day. I was a little upset that two of the characters didn't end up together, but other than that the show was amazing. So if you are looking for a new tv show, this is a great one. It's tv-14. It's five seasons long and it's on Netflix. Bye!
