

I.. have a confession.

I seriously felt like I need to be honest about this... even though some people might be offended.... I don't support LGBTQ+. I am not a part of the pride community, but I respect all members of it. This means I won't treat you any differently if you're a part of LGBTQ. I'm very religious, which is why I don't support.

I do Not Support, but I respect all members.

Pls don't hate me for this...
