

Key Points

Details

Men	Free men were citizens * they could vote * They could move to other city-states
Women	Women were not citizens * Women ruled the home * Responsible for chores, meals, and clothes
Kids	Kids went to school until 18 * Both boys and girls did chores * Boys had military training * Both genders did chores
Religion	Greece was deeply religious
Home life	Most homes had courtyards * Home life was the main part of Ancient Greece. *
Food	The greek diet was really healthy * City state location influenced diet *
Clothes	They wore wool in winter, and linen in summer * Clothes sold in an agora * Most clothes were homemade * They made jewelry and perfume

Summary