So me and some of my friends who also like KOTLC know a boy in our school who last year looks unnervingly like Keefe Sencen on the book four cover. For my convenience I'll call him Keefe. So Keefe and his friend (who I'll call Fitz also for my convenience) are in my English class and we have summer reading. Also a side note in the same class a few weeks earlier we were talking about Greek and Latin roots and one of them was "path" which meant feeling and as soon as our teacher said this Keefe stood up raised his hand and blurted out "like empath!". I laughed inside and thought "well period 1 class probably told him how they somehow struggled to understand the meaning of that word!" But now back in the present him and Fitz were talking about there book report. And by talking I mean shouting across the room loud enough that everyone could hear. Also keep in mind I'm very shy irl so I'm not going to say anything unless I have to. But I later found something out. And anyone have a wild guess what book they read? Yes it was KOTLC. Now because I was shy I didn't say anything but oh boy I was exploding inside. I now knew that Keefe knew about EVERYTHING!!! And possibly even chapter 42 everything! Now let's just sit and hope that he was never around when we were talking about him using the code word "Keefe". Also for some reason Keefe didn't know what Sophie looked like? I don't get it either. Closing up the story I had to very quickly tell my friend that I had something to tell them at lunch or else I might have exploded. And I'm not even joking when I say literally. I had a stomach ache just sitting there not saying anything laughing inside... welp! At least I won't have to deal with that in science! Wait a minute... Keefe sits at my science table!!! 😞
