

These guys might need some explanation. basically they are lil guys that are about 8 to 10 inches tall called gloogies and they have the ability to copy the appearance (kinda) and abilities of anything they touch. For example if they touch fire they will be on fire and can shoot fire. They can become basically anything for example if they touch a fork they get prongs on their head. They have five levels of what they can absorb, if a gloogie is first level then it can only absorb simple things, for example a rock or a leaf. Level one gloogies can't absorb living things. Level five gloogies can absorb stuff like chaos and order. These gloogies can absorb things they can't touch like evil and good. Gloogies choose what they absorb based on their job. For example if a gloogie was a delivery guy it would absorb something like a bird. Gloogies do not take powers only copy powers, not steal them and they are usually pacifists.
