

Ok let me continue uh I'm in a hospital bed. Yooo this thing has like a remote control and a little tv on the side of the wall at the top or something. This feels like luxury. There's people that give me food also and I can like elevate the hospital bed. I mean yes it's not good to be in the hospital but at least they treat u right. Eh my mom is like "stop elevating the hospital bed and stay still" and now she saying I'm grounded bruh
