

Uh, hey, um, I don't really know what to say... I've only been here for a few hours and already over 25 followers? I seriously wasn't expecting anything like this at all! I just posted some random drawing, and like, didn't really put much effort into it? But, wow, thank you so much for all the warm welcomes and kind words! It honestly means a lot. I'll definitely post more art soon, I promise! (I'm still figuring out my style, though... I'm not totally happy with it yet, but, uh, I'm really happy some of you like it already!)

I'm sorry if I'm being weird or awkward, I just, uh, get pretty anxious around people and... this is all new to me, and I've never had people be this nice, so... thanks, like, seriously. I don't really know what else to say.

Oh! Um, I was thinking, since I'm new here, maybe you can ask me questions in the comments, and I'll answer them tomorrow in a separate post? Like, anything, really - age, nationality, fandoms, music, whatever! Just, um, as long as it's respectful. Yeah... that's it. Thanks again, everyone!
