

~Music plays~

On-going conversations with my partner

Never ending conversations with my partner

I don't like the silence when he's gone

So when I'm with them the silence is gone

I have a confession

My heart might not exist without you

I want to prove that I'm good

I want to prove that I'm swell

I want to prove to you that I'm worthy

Because if I don't

You might slip away

~Small tune~

Okay I'm getting ahead of myself

I need to calm down

You'll always be here for me

I'll always be here for you
