

After the prologue is done which I'm getting closer to done sparky and his friends set off to explore the island to find more dragons to befriend.

they're will be maybe heart breaking scenes more backstory's and more fun.

also I'm thinking about adding two more dragons what should they're clans be I'm thinking between a ice wing and a hive wing. Anywho have fun and I'll see everyone when my prologue 2 is done being reviewed:)
