

hello! im here to explain why i didnt post for a while, so i dont have notability+ right? so when i run out of time i just wait till the time it says i can make notes again but this time it said i can post again in the first of july, i woke up on the first of july and 11:53AM and i wanted to post something.... heres where it gets interesting... it still said "you can post again on july 1st." LIKE WHAT?! so then i woke up really early today for personal reasons and it still wouldn't let me post... my ipad died and then i turned it back on and now it works- okay byeee

from my sould to your,
