

I'm starting a Pokémon nuzlocke everyone. For y'all who don't know what that is it's just Pokémon with self imposed rules. The rules are. If a Pokémon faints it dies and you can't use it anymore. You only get one encounter per route and you have to Nickname your Pokémon to set up for emotional trauma.

I'm doing a Pokémon Violet Nuzlocke and I'll try to keep y'all updated on my happening. So I hope this will be fun and I'll post soon about the first part of it.
