

Gallery please... I hate seeing some of my favorite artists leave. It hurts. Stop all this drama already. Go ahead ban me I don't care anymore. Gallery might as well be dead now, this drama is only killing off more and more people, some were even my friends. All this hurts to see. Why can't gallery be the same peaceful community we were months before this disaster. All this drama only makes things worse. Everyday I feel more motivated to quit. I miss everything...
