

Hey there my ✨ Stars ✨ (yes that's what I decided on),

Yk when I said in my Exploding Kittens notability cat thing that I might get banned for it? Well, even though I added the 'LOL' at the end...I might actually be banned. I just want y'all to know that I don't regret it. Even though I've barely been on Notability for a week, so many of my Stars feel like real life friends. I wish I had more time to get to know the lost notability legends though. We've lost so many...too many. How long before I'm next? How long before YOU'RE next? Well...yeah. Tysm for all your support. This may very well be my last post.

As my (possibly final) wishes, go follow @ophie-3 if they're not banned yet. Follow all the alt accounts of the notability legends. And follow @emb3r, my own alt.

Goodnight and goodbye—possibly forever.
