

Just got back from a three day youth retreat :DD

I would very much like to go back :/

Boys' cabins

Belt wars.

Girls' Cabin

Peep taught me how to play some piano :DD

Gender Separated Talks

Girls were taken up to our cabin to have our own talk about femininity. Boys were left to have their own talk about masculinity. The litany that we prayed had us crying. We gave everyone hugs at the end :).

Small groups

after the leaders would give their talks we go into our groups and they ask us questions. We got real personal some times but it felt like a safe space.

Adoration

singing, crying, holding hands :D

Church

They chose me of all people to do a testimony in front of a bunch of people after mass :D
