I would probably run in first (I'm very competitive)
When the first guy dies I'd be shocked, but snap out of it when I see the old guy run and stuff

Dalgona

I would pick the star (cause I had no clue what dalgona was b4 I watched the show)
But I would win cause I'm a former finger artist and I use an Apple Pencil so easy win

???

Tag of War

This one I'd probably lose, but I'll just stay with another team and hope for the best, cause idk I'm strong but cause I'm a girl idk if they'll take me

90%

Marbles

I'm antisocial and would make no friends, so I'll just go with whoever is available and challenge them to a game of who can draw the best picture in the sand. I win again

Glass Bridge

I would choose number 11 (one of my lucky numbers), and when it's my turn dash across as fast as possible. If I fall, I would hold onto the bars and grapple across. Boom, I win again.

Uhh idk

Squid Game

I would choose offense then ram into the defense and win (I actually don't know about this one but whatever) Then I'm 45.6 million USD richer and I can finally go on a shopping spree.

100%

Night

I would hide in a corner or high bed
