

Liv's ELA homework said something like this :

Emma has had 40 seconds of free time and her sister got 30 seconds. Emma told her sister that it wasn't fair due to the fact that she had 10 seconds <sup>Then</sup> ~~more~~ than her. She was very mad at Emma. And she said "I hope that I get more than you next time."

Question: Highlight where you can find the messed up spot and place the correct ( . , ? ! " " ; : ) one.

Based on the image below, what can you infer about Emma?

You can infer that Emma wears a pink dress and likes to smile a lot.
