

Hay YALL, sense I'm now doing shadow and Chaney's death (I did get Jim and Johns death done, it just might be a while before it actually comes out so y'all can see it)

I need someone to draw me a drunk dad (or mom) for the story, is it ok if someone dose that? I will like all of your stuff and give you a shout out to you for it, please make it in sticker form though and not an image please, but if you can't do it and can only do an image that is just fine, please here my plea for this though, thank you

My @ is: @shadowwolf, also might be changing it soon, hope you like the stories out so far though
