

Well, my note called "for lizz" got quarantined. I just wanna know: why? I didn't even say anything remotely bad in the note, if you can have your opinions, I can have mine. Please Lizz, I don't wanna lose you. If you don't wanna be friends anymore, that's okay, I want you to be happy. I want A, Fritz, Laci, E to be happy. But it's getting hard to keep trying, you may not think this is affecting us, but it is, it really is.
