

Gratitude is not just about having abundance or experiencing lack, but it is a deep-rooted contentment that acknowledges the presence of God in every circumstance.

-Apostle Paul

