

So basically there's gonna be sm new gacha games lol:

- G13?? Apparently, the name of that new game will not be Gacha Life 3, but sm people are js gonna call it that for now
- "Gacha Story" This is pretty interesting. 4 ppl who don't know, it's a visual novel creating game completely by Charlotte (Luni's sister). (Luni is working on his own projects; this is by her) It's kinda funny tho because in one segment there was this part where she said smth like "This is by me, not lazy Luni" lol
- Chibimation: Just watched a vid, they might have problems with png so sm1 suggested vector art instead. Can't wait 2 check it out when it comes out lol :]
