

The only thing I can think of now are all the devastating fires in California. If you didn't know about them here's a picture

Please pray for all these people who have lost their nomes, lives, belongings, and tamily

Kayer: Vear God Please help these people depend on you through this hard time in their life. Please helpmany people to come to you and become Christian because of these fires Lord, we know that you let this happen for the better good and please help people realize that. Thankyou and we love you. Amen.
