

The tree house

Once Upon a Tree house there was a tree that lived in the middle of the enchanted forest and he is the most famous tree in the enchanted forest. So the enchanted tree wish he was a house but he was too enchanted to be cut down. So he had to stay there forever and ever. There is a enchanted village that is really really close to the enchanted forest and the enchanted tree is in the middle of it. So then elves started moving in to the enchanted village. So there was a family of elves that moved in to the enchanted village. The family had two children, a pet dragon, and a baby elf. So the two children in that elf family is twins. Their names are Bailey and Bobby. Bailey is a girl and Bobby is a boy. They are nine years old and they want a treehouse to play in. The baby elf's name is Josie and she is eight months old. The mom and dad else names are Tom and Caroline. So there dragons name is midnight. So they decided to live in the small mushroom house closest to the enchanted forest. So they started unpacking and Bailey and Bobby wandered off into the enchanted forest. So they are playing a game and then they got a little too deep in the woods and got lost. Then I found a enchanted tree. So then they decided it's the perfect tree to make a treehouse in. They knew they really really wanted a treehouse to play in. So then they found some old sticks logs and other stuff and started making a ladder so then they can get up the tree. Then they carefully built a treehouse with mushrooms they found because I didn't want to hurt the enchanted tree. Also, then the enchanted tree talked to them. It really spooked Bobby and Bailey out because they never heard of tree talk. Then they became friends with enchanted tree in the tree. Then let them build a house on him. So they did. So when they build the treehouse, they had a build a bed and a bathroom and a kitchen. Then they went to the magical creek and caught fish eat for dinner. Then they slept in a comfortable bed that are made out of fluffy marshmallows. So the next day went on, and I live happily ever after. The end.
