

Species explanation

(classified species/unnamed)

- larger horns
- thick fur
- Neck bones angled up
- no back spikes
- no claws on feet
- ears angled back w/ 2 horns

external bones/claws/back spiker

- Avg color
- Bones/spikes/sharp
- claws/rounded (finger)

- small horns
- generally bigger
- back spiker
- neck bones angled down
- claw toes
- ears upright often

Intersex/Hrt

- fur colors mix or patch

Mixing greys
pinks purples greens (rare)

patching

- normal colors
- some mixing possible

First Born

- no horns
- horn nubs

- paws + claws
- claws later become whole fingers
- very fat
- no markings
- spikes move up the back as they grow

Shapeshifting!!

- most have trouble with accuracy
- difficult to keep up
- takes practice
- some can't at all
- some are perfect and don't need much energy
- can get down to atomic specifics (Helium balloon core)

random intersex bitch

male w/o markings

female completely marked random intersex person with awkward mix tone