

5000!!!

Special

WARNING!

May or may not make people sad.....I wish I could share this accomplishment to all the people who have helped me like jamilex vixen and a small handful of others....although most of my friends aren't on here anymore I hoped I made them proud and helped them smile

.....I did it guys I reached 500.....I wish you all were here to see this achievement....i wish you guys were here to see my art improve from where it started.....it hurts.....knowing you guys aren't here on this app anymore....i don't deserve 500 followers I didn't do anything to deserve it you guys were the ones who deserve it not me I never asked for this many I didn't ask for help....but you guys helped me anyways and for that I will always be grateful.....I hope life is treating you guys well and one day maybe I can thank you guys
