

- Research independently before getting others involved
- Find freelance work to make money to support your business
- Use social media platforms to introduce your business to people
- Make sure to get permission and tips from an adult before you start selling products
- Validate your ideas and plans with other people
- Decide on your business's funding
- Work with a guardian or trusted adult to set up your business and prices
- Market and sell your products
- Find some place holder jobs in order to have a source of income. Below are some examples
 - Tutor younger children:
 - Volunteer in a classroom, review homework with students, help out classmates
 - Offer babysitting services
 - Design logos for other maturing businesses
 - Offer services to your neighborhood:
 - Lawn care, car washing, garage/attic/basement cleaning/organizing
 - Create online content and sell merchandise:
 - YouTube, Twitch, TikTok, etc.
 - Sell hand made goods:
 - Jewelry, drawings, knitted/crocheted items, customized apparel, etc.
 - Start a temporary pet-care business:
 - Dog walking, pet cleaning, handmade animal accessories
 - House sit for friends and family
 - Sell baked goods in school or in your neighborhood