you're probably waiting for chapter 7 of roses and i've been super busy 😭 and trying to write this chapter so many times I now have writer's block 😊 so we love that ✨ instead of writing training chapters, i'm going to release the scores and reports for the tributes which should be kind of fun and since that will be off my back I can finally write the interview chapters 🎉 so yeah training reports should be out within the weekend and chapters 7 & 8 to follow!
