

Ashoka

Loimata

Despite Ashoka's "happy go lucky" looks, she's a total jerk and a party pooper. Not really someone you want to be around... She's not the bright and cheerful person you might think she is Loimata is actually the more cheerful one of the two. Yes, she looks like she's about to burst into tears everytime you interact with her, but everytime you hang out with her, it's always a good time!

Starz!z!

How do they date? they dont. they are both Aro ace. ☺

Loimata does not often open her eyes. Its not the most common thing for her to do so. she just has light-sensitive eyes

Loimata's name means "Tears" while Ashoka's name means "Without grief"
