I CUT MY SHOULDER OPEN AND YOU CAN SEE MY SHOULDER BLADE- IT HURTS REALLY BAD! but they let me bring my iPad to draw lol so that's good I won't be bored! My right arm has a bunch of bandaids on my shoulder, backstory: I was skateboarding and I fell sideways and I hit the right side of my head and cut my shoulder open… the rest is kinda a blur I was told I blacked out for a while… I'm in the hospital for a couple more hours! I leave at 5pm (Arizona time idk what time that is for you) but 2 1/2 hours left! Love y'all! Also add me on Fortnite: TarynMac09
