

Dear @ireallylovedogs,

I'll always be there for you whenever you need me. I'll give you cuddles when you're feeling down, I'll hug you when something is wrong. I love your eyes, the way you talk, how you are always clingy (it's super cute), I love you. You should always know that, and you have a whole group of funny, supportive friends that will help you with anything you need. We are always there for you.

Your love,

@ace_rainbowsrawsome <3
