

Yo, lil' homie

You may want to turn the speed to 0.5

Just so you can keep up

Sucker

Ooh, Sponge just stepped out here

Shouting on the route with a really stout rear

Fair chance he will make the clout appear

SquarePants gonna start a drought this year

Wow? He has a rap career?

How? You gotta be capping here

There's no way that he raps sincere

Gotta be crap, no slap in the ears

Pause, gotta make sure you're awake, dear

There are just a couple things I gotta make clear

Sponge "Too Good" like the Rih and Drake

cheer

Sponge is related to the great Shakespeare

Musketeer Square and I got my cape near

I hereby declare that you have a great fear

I put this in the air, so you have to wait here

So make sure you're there when my tape

premieres

I better see you there (I'm ready)

I'm built different

Yeah

I'm built different (I'm built different)

Haters want to be me, cause I'm flexing on the

TV (Got 'em)

Muscles oh-so creamy, I'm progressing in Bikini (Bottom)

Guessing they can't see me, 'cause I'm sexy and I'm dreamy (Blossom)

Address me as Houdini, I got magic like a genie

And they look stressed, maybe 'cause she's so blessed

When I go to assess, I collect what I invest Take a look at how she dressed, got them all so pressed

I'm just here to express, you don't have to look depressed

From the east to the west, Sandy Cheeks be's the best

From the speech to the text, to the screech in my chest, lil homie

Let me be direct, got the bars on deck

You don't even have to check

I'm a Star like a Trek

Plenty hearts in my deck

Green parts like I'm Shrek

Got an arch in my neck from crashing cars like a wreck

Got the smarts to reject

Got the smarts like I'm tech

Topping charts in Quebec

You look sparse like a speck

Let me start to reflect

I just realized that you don't listen to me
Like I'm an old fart, disrespect
Looks like you wanna mate me like a check
I am a crazy object

I'm built different
The dynamic swag on my feet
I invented it

If Titanic crashed on me
I would have lifted it
This gigantic gap between my teeth
I was gifted it

Boy, I'm built different
Yeah, I'm built different
On the music scene, rapping clean
I presented it

If they brought the war to the sea
I would have ended it
Pandemic hit in 2019

I extended it
Boy, I'm built different
Yeah, I'm built different

Yah
Built so different like I met Xzibit
Pimp my sponge, Air Force 1's
Got you hopping out of your seat like "ribbit"
Got you flying high real wild like spirit
Your raps are mild, I don't want to get near it

You know I'm the greatest, you just can't admit it

I heard all your latest, I just can't get with it
Go on a hiatus, 'cause all I hear is crickets
If I had to rate it, I would rather get a ticket

There is no debating, I will fence you like a picket

The channel is amazing, they can't help but click it

Seems like my fans wanna get religious

Seems like I am some sort of bishop

Got it on everybody's phone like widgets

And guess what fam, this is not fictitious

Yee haw, please forgive us

There's a slim chance that you might outlive us

So I have to let the world know, from Bikini to the cove

That I will end up in Guinness

And the homie Sandy is not superstitious

Even though she might be a little ambitious

We don't want to make you sad, or mad but

You are really over here pushing our limits

Eating this beat, cause it's so delicious

Eating this beat 'cause it's so nutritious

The way that we speak it just feels so vicious

Sandra J. Cheeks want all her riches

Seems like every time I give them snippets

For some reason they just can't skip it

Give me a beat and you know that I rip it
I'll say it out of my lips
I'm built different
The dynamic swag on my feet
I invented it
If Titanic crashed on me
I would have lifted it
