

Hi guys! Ok I'm not going to say who or what I saw but...

Don't trust ppl. Don't date online pls. And ur even doing it on notability, you don't know what they look like, how old they actually are or if their lying. There no reason to be doing that. I'm not trying to sound rude in any way but it's just weird.. Maybe if u get to know the person, actually talk to them then you could think about it. But seriously pls don't date, catfish, or lie. We can all be ourselves, and I would like to say, and this might sound a little rude, but if ur asking for attention. I'm sorry but come on. You could support yourself and you know that. I get people that say

"Todays a bad day"

"I feel like venting"

But people that say stuff like

"I'm not good enough, only if u guys tell me I am."

I don't get that.

I am not trying to bring hate at all.

If u have an opinion on this pls right back :)

I 100% agree and I know who you are talking about.

It's called victimizing yourself basically to gain a reaction from the people you are directing it towards. It is toxic and upsetting. I must add that if you are not happy with yourself you should not be putting yourself out there to date anybody, you could be dragging the other person down too.
