

hey Hayden we don't know each other but you seem like a chill dude and I've seen your most recent post I not only with unbroken time say something I will. You see when I was in 7th-8th grade I thought I was the one who caused all the problems for everyone I started to hate myself becoming suicidal cutting trying to die I isolated myself from my few friends family and I just started to hide it from everyone. Then one day I went blank I stopped caring about everything my grades, my life, work just stopped until I helped a friend get over their depression and I saw what I looked like and seen I was doing. So 9th grades here and I'm more interested in life but still I don't give a fuck's person. What I'm trying to get at is do this to yourself @lexxaa is just some person saying words to make her feel like she has power over ya, I had a 7th grade friend once upon a story I was grounded by 6th graders (fyi I was in 2nd grade) getting bullied and shit man he came in the circle and knocked the kid who was kicking me right out best day ever. Anyway you ain't no burden or extra weight or causing a struggle you're a good kid man 👍
