

Why some of my fears are relevant (these are not my biggest fears tho-)

Being cheated on: um...if I really like you, I will go into depression 😞 unless I'm feeling more like

Vegas then I am Lai, then that's a WHOLE different story 😂 (yes, there's a HUGEE difference. If you want me to explain, say strawberry gang in the comments)

Being rejected: yeah no. I had to get my friend to ask my gf if she liked me 😞 I'm a wimp ik 😞

Being lied to: no one want this to happen. This is like at the very bottom of my fears, but still. Don't lie to me. Your life and my life would be MUCH easier. Plus the amount of pain I feel when someone lies to me is immaculate, and definitely not easy to describe 😞 (if you lied to me, tell it to me now.

Seriously the longer you wait, the worse it'll be in the future.)

There's gonna be a poll at the bottom, so choose wisely! Other than that, remember I love you, and

I'll see you later! Bye bye ❤️
