

Hey guys just letting you know that for now on I will be posting only scripture from the Bible and Bible study templates bc I want to share the word of God. 😊 ❤️ I will also be deleting my posts that seem to disrespect God and his word. (And the posts that are just pointless)

I won't be deleting every single one of my older posts but I will be deleting some of them.

I will also post daily verses, encouraging messages, etc.

Have a great day and God bless,
