

Can I can call you Ayana? Also where have you been for 13 years? My life was horrible!

Sis, chill! So first you can call me Ayana but I do prefer Luna. And I spent the last 8 years being the security guard for father's personal hell (means that my life was just as horrible as yours)😓

You can call me either Crystal or L. I don't mind which one you call me. I was abused by Clara just because "I came into her life". Dad never loved Clara and he was forced to marry her. Clara killed me with a metal bat when I was 12. So Dad (william) found out and got a divorce with her and he is now married to Henry.
