! you're having a mental breakdown from the stress of school and the way too high expectations from your overbearing controlling parents who shame

you for not being the perfect normal child but i can't help having anxiety and rebelling against authority like to feel in control of my life and they think i'm insane but i'm not i just need some help i just need someone to talk to i think i'm going insane and i can only get these feelings out in art but my family doesn't support anything but sports so my interests are shunned and they're homophobic and body shame me and i'm so insecure and depressed and anxious and they really need to chill omg i didn't need a ref i'm so proud :)
